

Are you sending an Audition Tape? Do you have an Audition?

You need a READER to make it better

When you need to send off that audition tape you don't have much time; there is a lot of stress. You don't have time to coach someone on how to read. Reading with someone who works with you will make your auditions better. It could be the difference between being considered for and getting the part.

We specialize in:

Audition Coaching
Reading with actors for auditions
Rehearsing auditions & Creating audition tapes

If you need a reader call

Geoff's work as a corporate coach taught him strong, clear and effective methods of communication. As a freelance reader, his work with various casting agents gave him insight to the audition process. Meshing these skills with dedicated training and tutoring from Ron Leach for the audition process makes Geoff a powerful and insightful coach for film, television and theatre.
